

Middlewich Primary School Equality and Diversity

1. Aims and Legal Duties

At Middlewich Primary School we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010 and the Public Sector Equality Duty 2011. The general duties are to:

1. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited in the Act.
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a characteristic and those who don't.
3. Foster good relations between people who share a characteristic and those who don't.

We understand the principal of the act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity.

A protected characteristic under the act covers the groups listed below:

- Age (for employees only)
- Disability
- Race (includes ethnic or national origins, colour or nationality)
- Gender (including issues of transgender)
- Gender reassignment
- Maternity and pregnancy
- Religion and belief (includes lack of belief)
- Sexual identity
- Marriage and Civil Partnership (for employees)

In order to meet our general duties, listed above, the law requires us to do some specific duties to demonstrate how we meet the general duties. These are to:

- Publish equality information – to demonstrate compliance with the general duty across its functions
We will not publish any information that can specifically identify any child
- Prepare and publish equality objectives

To do this we will collect data related to the protected characteristics above and analyse this data to determine our focus for our equality objectives. The data will be assessed across our core provisions as a school. This will include the following functions:

- Admissions
- Attendance
- Attainment
- Exclusions
- Prejudice related incidents

Our objectives will detail how we will ensure equality is applied to the services listed above. However where we find evidence that other functions have a significant impact on any particular group we will include work in this area.

We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

In fulfilling our legal obligations we will:

- Recognise and respect diversity
- Foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of belonging
- Observe good equalities practice, including staff recruitment, retention and development
- Aim to reduce and remove existing inequalities and barriers
- Consult and involve widely
- Strive to ensure that society will benefit

2. Our School Values and Vision for Equality

We believe all pupils and staff should have equal access to opportunities, regardless of sex or sexual orientation, race, age, colour, religion, nationality, ethnic origins or physical or mental abilities.

Through a specifically planned PSHE work which links assemblies and circle times and through our wider curriculum, we aim to ensure that our children develop a strong knowledge and understanding of what diversity means within our school, our country and our world. We deem it is essential that children are encouraged to celebrate, value and respect those who are different to themselves. In order to achieve this, we will:

- Teach children to respect the religious, spiritual, cultural, and moral values of others and to consider thoughtfully their own attitudes, values and beliefs
- Provide an atmosphere of harmony and respect and safety within an educational environment
- Strive to make the best possible provision for all pupils/students/staff, regardless of sex or sexual orientation, race, age, colour, religion, nationality, ethnic origins or physical or mental abilities
- Respect diversity. We know that treating people equally is not simply a matter of treating everyone the same. We do our best to make reasonable adjustments for disability, recognise and celebrate cultural differences, and understand the different needs and experiences of boys and girls.
- Teach children what discrimination looks like and ways that they can actively challenge it
- Recognise that equality is not simply about protecting the potentially vulnerable
- Recognise that all children may be disadvantaged by the holding of prejudicial views, and seek to promote good relationships and positive attitudes between all groups
- Value staff for their ability and potential to help us make the best possible provision for the children in our school, regardless of gender or sexual orientation, race, age, colour, religion, nationality, ethnic origins or physical or mental abilities

In following these practices, we believe that we will build a strong united society in our school and develop beliefs, values and opinions in our children which they will transfer to their lives within and beyond the community of Middlewich.

Addressing Prejudice Related Incidents

This school is opposed to all forms of prejudice and we recognise that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice related discrimination may fair less well in the education system. We provide both our pupils and staff with an awareness of the impact of prejudice in order to prevent any incidents. If incidents still occur we address them immediately and report them to the Local Authority using their guidance material. The Local Authority may provide some support.
